Application for employment as Head Chef

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Modern information technology comes in very handy for offering you my services.

Given my training as a cook and waiter as well as my sound professional experience as team-leader in the preparation of all types of hot and cold dishes and 8 years activity as head chef in first class and congress hotels, I am convinced that I meet your requirements. I am used to market fresh and high quality cooking.

As an organiser, I am especially able to motivate and challenge existing kitchen staff to work together in producing a wide range of dishes. Moreover, I also have experience in international cooking. I am familiar with fresh and salt water fish specialities as indeed I am with Mexican food and Philippine and other Asian dishes. I especially enjoy creating modern, healthy delicacies.

In August 1996 I married into a norwegian family and therefore would like to achieve a new challenge in a norwegian first-class hotel, to which I can devote my full interest.

I should be very happy to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Frank Schmidt
