

Mr. Schmidt's self-assurance, his good expertise and his co-operative style of leadership enabled him dutifully and correctly to execute the tasks and responsibilities entrusted to him.

We should particularly like to mention his great interest in the Internet and Internet editing.

His correct, friendly and obliging nature earned him the esteem of our staff and his superiors alike.

He is now leaving us of his own volition. We most warmly thank Mr. Schmidt for all he has done and wish him all the very best for his future.
